Adult Literacy Advocates to Host Links for Literacy May 5 at Copper Mill Golf Club
Celebrity guest: Edwin W. Edwards

BATON ROUGE – Adult Literacy Advocates of Greater Baton Rouge (ALA) will hold its fifth annual Links for Literacy charity golf tournament at 11 a.m. on Monday, May 5, at Copper Mill Golf Club, 2100 Copper Mill Drive in Zachary.

Former Louisiana governor and current Congressional candidate Edwin W. Edwards will be the celebrity guest at the tournament, visiting with golfers and supporting the event.

The tournament opens with registration, warm-ups and lunch at noon, and a shotgun start at 12:30 p.m. Price Leblanc will sponsor a hole-in-one contest for a chance to win a new car during the tournament. Links for Literacy will conclude with awards and dinner at 6 p.m. Prizes will be given for Longest Drive, Closest to Pin, Low Gross, and Low Net.

Players can sign up for $125 each or $500 per foursome, which includes 18 holes of golf, a golf gift bag, clubhouse luncheon, dinner and awards presentation. Players can sign up at the event, but advance registration is recommended to guarantee a spot. Players can register online at www.adulthoodliteracyadvocates.org or by calling 225-383-1090.

Links for Literacy 2014 sponsors include Baton Rouge Coca-Cola Bottling Company, L’Auberge Casino Hotel Baton Rouge, Jones Walker, Lofton Staffing and Security Services and Postlethwaite & Netterville.

Sponsorship opportunities are still available for companies that wish to make a tax-deductible contribution to support this event. Sponsorships include Title Sponsor ($5,000), Prize Sponsor ($3,000) and Hole Sponsor ($1,500). Companies can also sponsor a foursome to play in the tournament for $500. Information about sponsorship levels and the various benefits associated with each is available online at www.adulthoodliteracyadvocates.org.

All Links for Literacy proceeds will benefit ALA’s students and programs.

About Adult Literacy Advocates

Adult Literacy Advocates, a not-for-profit 501(C)(3) organization, provides a variety of educational programs to help adults in the Greater Baton Rouge area achieve personal, work and family goals by improving their literacy skills. For more than 40 years, Adult Literacy Advocates has been serving the community by offering one-on-one tutoring and small group instruction to adult learners. Classes currently offered are Adult Basic Education, pre-GED and GED preparation, and English as a Second Language (ESL). Adult Literacy Advocates is a Capital Area United Way member agency.
