

Contact: Gary Robertson, Executive Director
225.383.1090/gary@adulthoodliteracyadvocates.org

An Evening with Great Authors Benefitting Adult Literacy Advocates
Book Talk + Signing + Reception

Thursday, March 19, 2015, 6:00 pm – 8:30 pm
LSU - Dalton Woods Auditorium in the School of the Coast & Environment

BATON ROUGE, LA –

Adult Literacy Advocates of Greater Baton Rouge, along with the LSU Chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, proudly present a celebration of the work of authors Gary L. Stewart and Susan Mustafa.

Gary L. Stewart earned his Bachelor of Science degree from LSU, and is Vice President of Delta Tech Service of Louisiana. Ten years ago, Gary began writing a journal, chronicling every detail of his search for his father and his own identity, and the heartbreaking discoveries he makes along the way. That journal served as the basis for The Most Dangerous Animal of All. Gary resides in Louisiana with his wife, Kristy, and son, Zach.

Susan Mustafa is an award-winning author and journalist. In addition to Susan's latest release, The Most Dangerous Animal of All, she is also the co-author of Dismembered, written with Sue Israel, which chronicles the story of serial killer Sean Vincent Gillis, a Louisiana killer who confessed to the brutal murders and mutilations of eight women; and Blood Bath, about the life and crimes of serial killer Derrick Todd Lee, linked by DNA to the murders of seven Louisiana women. Blood Bath was written with Special Prosecutor Tony Clayton and Sue Israel. Susan lives in Louisiana with her husband, Scott.

Tickets are $20 per person, but senior citizens (age 65+) can purchase tickets for $10, and students with a valid ID can purchase tickets for $5. Hors d'oeuvres and drinks will be provided. Sponsorship opportunities are available for companies that wish to make a tax-deductible contribution to support the event.

Attendees can purchase tickets at the door, but because seating is limited, early registration is encouraged. Tickets can be purchased online at www.adulthoodliteracyadvocates.org. Guests can also call 225-383-1090 or e-mail info@adulthoodliteracyadvocates.org to inquire about tickets. All proceeds from the event will benefit ALA's students, programs and educational outreach services. Donations will be accepted at the event.

###

Adult Literacy Advocates (ALA) is a non-profit 501(C)(3) organization that has provided education programs in the Baton Rouge area for more than 48 years. ALA provides a variety of classes that help our students achieve personal, work and family goals by improving their literacy skills. ALA is a Capital Area United Way member agency.