Featuring: Rannah Gray Author of: Familiar Evil

Familiar Evil

Familiar Evil is a story straight out of the headlines from Louisiana to London involving the international search for Baton Rouge TV personality Scott Rogers that exposed his dark side as a child predator. This award-winning book has been the focus of three network documentaries, and the author is currently working with UNConventional Entertainment and Sony Pictures Television to develop a documentary series based on her story.

Rannah Gray

Rannah Gray is a Louisiana public relations consultant and international award-winning author. Her first book, Familiar Evil, a true crime story, has been honored with 14 national and international book awards. She has also written two award-winning mysteries for young readers with her twin great-nieces. Rannah earned her B.A. and Master's degrees in Journalism from LSU.
